Johnson Knocked Out

JESS WILLARD IN THE TWENTY-SIXTH ROUND

THE MAN WON WITH TERRIFIC RIGHT SWING BURLY BLACK'S JAW

DAYTONA, April 5.—The title to the honor of being the champion pugilist of the world is now more in possession of a white, after being held for seven years by a negro.

Willard knocked Jack Johnson out in the 26th round, after one of the most strenuous pugilistic encounters in many years. The decisive punch was landed by the white man at 2:30, following a round in which the negro seemed to have the advantage.

Willard received dozens of terrific smashes from his black opponent, but he seemed to stand his punishment well, and at one time appeared in danger of losing.

DAYTONA, April 5 (noon).—The weather today is cool and partly cloudy, but there are no indications of rain.

The topic of conversation is the fight between Willard and Johnson. Both sides are confident. Jim Jeffries and other boxing men declare Willard is a champion. John L. Sullivan and others declare Johnson can see nobody but him.

Guarded troops are guarding the arena to prevent possible disorders.

The betting is generally at odds of 10 to 1 in favor of Willard, but the odds will probably prevail. The betting is very heavy and it is not likely that over $100,000 will change hands.

At 12 o'clock it was estimated that about 1,000 women are expected to be in the arena. The receipts for the fight are in the neighborhood of $100,000.

The first official announcement preliminary to the fight came from the arena at 1:30, when it was turned over to Johnson as his share of the prize.

Willard arrived at 1:11 and was in the ring at 1:16.

At 1:16, Johnson smiled broadly. He weighed 227 pounds. Willard looked serious. He weighed 217 pounds. They shake hands.

Johnson, "some one told you a thousand right punches," replied Jack, "whirling" his fists.

The fight started at 1:33.

YACHT RACES

ON AT SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—A series of yacht races with international character will be inaugurated here to mark the centennial of the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Invitations had been accepted by many Europeans in advance, but most of these have been withdrawn and none of the best yachts are represented. The races will cover a period of several weeks.

The most interesting trophy is the President Wilson cup, for the winner of the international event.

three lefts by Willard. The negro blocked two more. Jack landed the right to the body. Johnson ducked Willard's swing, which drove him to the ropes. Willard landed two blows to the body. Johnson landed in the stomach and tried for Willard's jaw but was blocked. Willard missed swing. Jack landed one in the face. The fourth round was Willard's.

FIFTH ROUND—Willard landed in the face. Johnson's mouth is bleeding. Johnson shot left to Willard's body and worked the right to the face. The negro ducked a right swing and landed three punches on Willard's body. Johnson landed three hard blows. Willard landed on Johnson's body and in return Jess drove Johnson to the ropes. As the round ended it was Willard's.

NINTH ROUND—Willard rushed but Jack blocked four swings for the head. Willard finally landed his right on the body and his left over Jack's heart. Johnson whipped a smash to the stomach and Willard smashed a right to Jack's jaw. Johnson landed with the left and drove Willard to the ropes. The round was even.

At the end of the ninth round the odds shifted in Willard's favor. Ring-side gamblers offered $500 to $300 that Willard wins. It is believed Johnson shot his bolt in the early rounds.

TENTH ROUND—Willard forced the fighting and landed the left on Jack's face. Johnson drove Willard to the ropes with body punches. Jack jabbed Jess' face three times. Johnson drove Willard to the ropes with a volley of blows in the face. The negro landed his right on Willard's body, following with a terrific right to the jaw. He was trying for a knockout. The round was Johnson's.

ELEVENTH ROUND—Johnson forced the fighting and landed on Willard's head. They clinched, and Willard returned the right to body and drove the right to the body. Johnson drove the left to Willard's face and ducked Willard's right. The negro landed two body blows. Jess countered to the body. Johnson landed to Willard's stomach. The round was even.

TWELFTH ROUND—Johnson went after Willard and landed two body blows. Willard missed a terrific right to the head; Johnson ducked easily. Johnson smashed Willard's face and landed the left to body. Willard countered two to the body and Johnson landed four to Willard's head, driving him back against the ropes. The round was Johnson's.

RUSSIANS SEEM ABOUT TO FORCE WAY OPEN TO HUNGARIAN CAPITAL

PETROGRAD, APRIL 5.—WITH THE RUSSIAN FORCES HOLDING THE BESKID AND THE AUSTRIANS IN RETREAT SOUTHWARD, THE FORCES OF THE CZAR ARE BEING HURLED AT THE DEFENSES OF USZOK PASS, WITH A VIEW TO CLEARING AWAY THE LAST OBSTACLE TO A GENERAL ADVANCE INTO HUNGARY. NO REST IS BEING GIVEN, DAY OR NIGHT, TO THE AUSTRO-GERMAN FORCES.

THE RUSSIAN STEAM ROLLER HAS NEVER OPERATED WITH GREATER FORCE THAN IN THE GREAT BATTLE NOW RAGING JUST NORTH OF USZOK PASS. WAR OFFICE OFFICIALS DECLARE THAT IT IS NOT WITHIN THE POWER OF THE TEUTONIC FORCES TO WITHSTAND THE ATTACKS THEY ARE UNDERGOING.

"ON TO BUDAPEST!" WILL BE THE BATTLE CRY OF THE RUSSIANS AFTER USZOK HAS BEEN CAPTURED.

ARGUMENTS ADVANCED ON HARVESTER DISSOLUTION
WASHINGTON, April 5.—Arguments upon the appeal in the supreme court from the judgment ordering a dissolution of the Harvester trust have been advanced to hearing today. The decision will probably be rendered within a fortnight. The appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs will inevitably follow a decision adverse to the company. Geo. W. Perkins, erstwhile head of the Bull Moose party, and the McCormacks, of the principal Bull Moose organ during the last presidential campaign, the Chicago Tribune, are the most heavily interested persons financially.

STATE LAWMAKERS CONVENE TOMORROW

PROBABLE DAVIS, OF MADISON, WILL BE PRESIDENT OF SENATE—SPEAKERSHIP LIES BETWEEN HARDEE AND LAKE.

TALLAHESSEE, April 5.—All is in readiness for the convening of the state legislature tomorrow morning. The caucus will be held this evening, at which time the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate will be selected.

From all indications it looks as if Charles E. Davis, of Madison county, will preside over the senate, while the selection of speaker of the house seems to lie between Cary A. Hardee, of Live Oak, and Forest Lake, of Sanford.

The members of the house from Volusia county, James E. Cade, of Seville, and H. G. Putnam, of Oak Hill, are expected here this afternoon. Senator J. B. Conrad is ill at his home in Glenwood and may not be able to attend the session.

CAPITAL IN HANDS OF NEWSPAPER MEN

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Washington is the unwilling subject of a brand new experiment in city government. Beginning today the city will be governed almost completely by newspaper reporters. The city hall has become an annex of the National Press club.

Two of the three members of the board of commissioners, the supreme executive authority, are newspaper men, namely, Oliver P. Newman, who left a position with the United Press association and the Newspaper Enterprise association to become chairman of the board, and Louis Brownlow, newspaper syndicate writer and formerly the representative of Tennessee newspapers.

Otto Praeger, the new city postmaster, at the time of his appointment was the Washington correspondent of the Dallas News and the Galveston News, of Texas.

The marshal for the District of Columbia is Maurice Splain, who until he became a government official was the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Public Ledger and the Pittsburgh Sun.

The latest appointment to startle the residents of Washington is the selection of Raymond W. Pullman, an able young man of thirty-two summers, who is correspondent for newspapers throughout the country and formerly a reporter on the Washington Post.

In addition to this Guy Mason, of the New York World's Washington staff, is holding an important position as a member of a special commission that is placing a valuation on a large tract of property owned by residents of Washington, and which the federal government is preparing to buy for park purposes.

There is scarcely a department of the federal government where there are not two or three newspaper correspondents in responsible positions.

If the Washington experiment is successful it is being suggested that other cities might follow the example thus set, and just turn over the control of their affairs to newspaper reporters. Thus they would not only avoid troublesome and expensive elections, but they would forestall all of the newspaper criticism which worries the residents of most cities who have just ordinary politicians in office and the reporters on the outside.

SPOT, LIKE PRINCE,

RETURNED FROM DEAD
Recently the Daily News in good faith chronicled the death of Prince, Geo. E. Rogers' dog, a public character through his trick of riding on the mud sward of Mr. Rogers' car. Later it was announced that Prince had returned to life, or rather, that it was all a mistake and Prince had never been numbered with the dead.

Here is still another. Also recently, under the John Van Valkenburg-like caption of "Dog Shot Dead Rose and Fled," this paper published a vivid description of the shooting by C. W. Chapman of "Spot," a big yard dog, owned by Fred Aldridge of West Loomis avenue. Spot had been badly chewed up in a fight with another dog and to end his sufferings his owner employed Mr. Chapman to kill the animal. He was supposed to have been shot through the head and also through the body by Mr. Chapman, but escaped to the woods to die. Spot, according to Mr. Aldridge, must have been shot with blank cartridges as he returned home with nary sign of bullet wound in either head or body and is now recovering from his other injuries.

DESPLAND HOTEL CLOSED SATURDAY FOR SEASON

The Despland hotel closed Saturday for the summer, although some of the guests will remain for a time, catered to by a reduced force of employees. C. S. LOCAL ASSOCIATION FORMED TO DEAL WITH YOUTHFUL CRIMINALS

Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock Rev. Crawford Jackson, of Atlanta, Ga., addressed a mass meeting at the First Baptist church on the juvenile court and probation system. He defined the court as follows: "The juvenile court and probation system is such a court as proves, in the person of the presiding judge, a wise father to the wayward child in the adjudication of his case, and in the person of the probation officer an intelligent and patient mother (or a man with something of the mother heart) in dealing with the same neglected and delinquent child. Thus combining the best principles of motherhood and fatherhood as well as of jurisprudence, the juvenile court is a court after God's own heart."

This system, now beyond the experimental stage, steps in midway between two extremes—that accused plan and custom in vogue for centuries of imprisoning youthful offenders with older and criminal ones, thereby criminalizing the child, and the other extreme which is foolish and hurtful alike to the child and society: to ignore the offense of the young law-breaker because he is a child.

At the conclusion of Mr. Jackson's address the Daytona Juvenile Court and Protective association was formed with the following officers, who will serve as the executive committee:

President, Rev. Holmes S. Rightmire; vice-president, Fred Stones; secretary-treasurer, Rev. S. L. Jackson; chief probation officer, D. D. Rogers; chairman of legislative committee, Rev. J. H. Elder.

YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED

EARLY EASTER MORNING
Miss Alice G. Ferguson and J. D. Osteen were wedded Easter morning, shortly after 8:00 o'clock, in the First Christian church on South Palmetto avenue, the ceremony being performed by Rev. S. Linnaeus Jackson, pastor of the church. Miss Addie Decker and B. F. Bennett, the latter a cousin of the groom, acted as witnesses and were the only persons present at the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Osteen are at home at the Bellaire cottage, 221 Magnolia avenue.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Ferguson, of 67 First avenue and has for nearly two years past been employed in the office of the Gazette-News company. Mr. Osteen has been with the Daytona Grocery company. The young couple have many friends in Daytona and vicinity to wish them a long and happy married life.

JUST TAXES—AND THEIR FACILITY FOR UNCOVERING UGLINESS

It has been said that nothing is sure except death and taxes. This may or may not be true. Of course, it is reasonably certain that the breath of life will eventually depart from these poor bodies of ours, and it is only a little less sure that from "him that hath" will be taken away some of his goods and chattels, or the value thereof, in the name of Taxes—state taxes, county taxes, income tax, municipal taxes, special taxes, dog tax, and so on ad vitam.

Taxes were created for the ostensible purpose of raising revenue with which to pay legitimate expenses incurred in administering public affairs; but opinions differ. There are those who know in their own minds that the tax system was devised to meet the rabble's demand for an effective and adequate means of torture for holders of choice front lots, houses, jewels and bank stock; and it is commonly believed that the scheme of "money bleeding" now in vogue attained to its present state of perfection directly after the "Spanish Inquisition" reached the summit of its unpopularity.

Taxes of whatever character—high, low, just or unjust, for worthy purposes or otherwise—are the surest "raise" getters in the world. Let the meekest, mildest, suavest, sweetest-tempered man or woman within your range of acquaintance go to the tax office, ascertain the amount he or she must submit to being lawfully mulcted for the current period, and bingo! right up in the air he or she sky-rockets and grabs off a "grouch" that would sour a barrel of saccharine.

"The — you say! Why, great Jerusalem! !!!! Of all the infernal, dashblanked, dadswizzled, concatenated —!!!! Ask City Tax Collector Mc. Porter. He knows all about it. By the way, it is time now to pay Daytona city taxes.

EVENTUALLY! WHY NOT NOW?

GREAT CONFLICT

THE GERMAN VIEW.
 (By Hugo von Kleist.)
 Defying the very laws of the United States enacted for the protection and freedom of trade, Great Britain has forced from the rubber and woolen manufacturers of this country agreements declared by legal authorities to be in violation of federal enactments and by the terms of which England assumes arbitrary control of two great national industries. According to the agreement imposed upon rubber manufacturers, no rubber whatever can be sold to Germany or Austria-Hungary, and sales to neutral European countries can be made only through a British agent, the shipments being sent by way of London. Woolen products cannot be sold outside of the United States except to Great Britain and her allies.

These agreements are said by lawyers to be in gross violation of the original Sherman act and the act of February 12, 1913. Indefensible from every legal and ethical standpoint, the exactions of the rubber contracts establish precedents of grave menace to America's commercial future. The business interests of the United States, by submitting to the terms of Great Britain, are humiliated and our industrial dignity and independence gravely imperiled and outraged.

both of force and of false pretenses, Belgium invites sympathy which comes little short of being universal.

LAST AUCTION SALE OF LOTS THIS SEASON

OPPORTUNITY IS OFFERED TO BUY IN HERRICK TERRACE IN PORT ORANGE AT YOUR OWN PRICE.

Probably the last auction sale of lots this season will be held at Port Orange tomorrow and Wednesday, the sales starting at 1:30 p. m.

The property offered consists of 110 beautiful lots in Herrick Terrace on Ridgewood avenue and Orange street, over which the proposed trolley line will run. The property is close in being only a few minutes' distance from the postoffice.

Each day of the sale a lot will be given away to some one attending the auction which will be conducted by the National Realty Auction company, with B. H. Harnly of Lakeland as auctioneer.

Free tickets for the trip to Port Orange by boat may be obtained at Attorney Frank W. Pope's office, 212 South Beach street, just north of the Merchants bank.

This property which will be offered for sale tomorrow and Wednesday is owned by E. H. Herrick, of Bogota, N. J., who is well known here, having spent both last winter and the present season in Daytona. Port Orange is an incorporated town and is making a steady growth and improvement. Lots purchased now will probably double in value within the next few years. Better make it a point to attend this sale. The lot site may be reached by automobile or other vehicle by way of Ridgewood avenue if you prefer that manner of travel to the free boat ride on the Halifax.

WHAT ONE SHELL DID

Few people realize what great power there lies in the modern shells and explosives. This unusual picture vividly tells what an enormous amount of destruction a shot from one of the French 75 mm. guns is able to accomplish. When this horse was struck by the shell the force of the shot cut the animal in two and lifted the fore half of the carcass into the tree.

BOOZE OF A GRUESOME SORT

Negro Sells Customers Alcohol for Drinking, Obtained From Hospital Pickling Jars.

Cumberland, Md.—Many drinkers in Wills Creek section of Randolph county, W. Va., are excited because Flanders Twilley, a negro, sold them preserving alcohol, which he obtained at a hospital in Elkins, where he had been employed.

Only that Twilley is in the Tucker county jail for six months for violating the antipistol toting law saved him from rough treatment at the hands of his infuriated customers.

The alcohol sold by Twilley was taken from bottles in which hospital surgeons had preserved tumors, cancers, appendices and abnormal growths. The horror at the discovery by his victims of the kind of intoxicant he had sold them has tended to make the section drier than ever.

AT THE CRYSTAL THEATER
 Howard Estabrook and Barbara Tennant in "M'liss," one of Hart's entrancing stories, is the picture to be shown at the Crystal theater this afternoon and evening. As are most of Hart's efforts, "M'liss" has a western setting, and is distinctly western in treatment. It is a good picture.

What would you do if you married a missionary, went to Africa with him, became tired of the life and came home? Having received news that your husband was dead, you proceed to marry one with the same name as the last husband's. Then No. 2 disappears, presumably at sea, and you acquire the third husband, who gets jealous and leaves. Later all three husbands show up alive and well at the same time, and of course there is a great muddle. See "Pretty Mrs. Smith" Tuesday afternoon and evening at the Crystal. Fritz Scheff is in the title role.

SHOULD HE TAKE ONE DRINK?
 It Will Cost Him $4,000 Placed as Conditional Forfeit to Obtain His Release.

Tacoma, Wash.—One drink will cost Thomas Cannally $4,000—that is, if he takes it. Six weeks ago Cannally was sentenced to six months in jail for stealing $4 while intoxicated. After serving a month of his sentence Cannally appealed to Police Justice Evans to be released, offering to deposit $4,000 in cash, to be forfeited in case he took a drink before his term would have expired. Justice Evans agreed, and placed the money on deposit in a local bank.

The money was still in the bank today drawing 3 per cent interest and Cannally was occupying a seat high on the "water wagon."

WILDCAT WAS BIG AS GOAT
 Alabama Hunter Kills Huge Bobcat Which Had Been Preying on Animals in Vicinity.

Bay Minette, Ala.—K. R. White, one of the leading hunters of this vicinity, is exhibiting a mammoth bobcat which he killed several days ago about five miles southeast of town. The animal is almost as large as a goat and is noted as one of the fiercest of the wild animals yet in the woods of this county. The animal has been preying on the smaller animals in the vicinity of the White home, and when chase was made the hunter and dogs were able to capture it. The fur is very pretty and it is highly prized by the owner.

PROVES THAT OIL AND WATER WILL NOT MIX
 A Ford touring car, bearing a "Harris Oil" banner, was reposing in the ditch on the Ormond-Daytona road, just south of the entrance to the North bridge causeway, Saturday, having plunged into the ditch some time during the night. The driver was perhaps putting to the test that old saying that "Oil and water will not mix." There are other liquids also that will not mix well, but that is another story, perhaps.

Okeechobee Farms

Big crops of corn, cane, cowpeas, velvet beans, rape, peanuts, kudzu, spineless cactus, besides Bermuda, Rhodes, Para, Natal and other grasses for hay and pasture. With all these crops cattle, sheep and hogs can have green food the year 'round.

Thousands of Acres of Our Land at the North End of Lake Okeechobee Are Now Ready for Cultivation

Land does not need draining other than small ditches necessary on any farm. Make a trip to the new division of the Florida East Coast Railway without delay, and see for yourself what these lands are. Not that Okeechobee is now only a trifle over twelve hours' journey from Jacksonville.

Investigate This Wonderful Country While You Can Have a Choice of Locations for Your Farm

Land is unexcelled for general farming, livestock and poultry raising, and for growing all vegetables common to Florida as well as the finest citrus fruit. This town and country will be an amazing rate during the next few years. We also have excellent land and town lots at HAVANA and KENANSVILLE—the former a fine lake section in Seminole County suited to fruit raising, trucking and general farming, and the latter a fertile pine land country in Osceola County adapted to stock raising, general farming and fruit growing. Write today for full particulars.

Mrs. Charles Peters, of Knoxville, Tenn., who had been with Mrs. Jacob Duga at the Bellaire on Magnolia avenue for a month or more, left Saturday for Jacksonville where she will visit a sister before going home.

*Three nice rooms, good location, for rent cheap for summer. Bellaire cottage, 221 Magnolia avenue.

J. G. Martin, brother of Mrs. W. G. Nash, was in the city for a few days last week, leaving Saturday in his boat, the Dolphin, for his home in St. Augustine. Mr. Martin had been at Miami during the winter with his boat and stopped over at this place to see his sister and family.

*Children's and misses' sewing at reasonable prices. Address box 91, Holly Hill, Fla. 202-6t

Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald and little son, Raymond, went down to Malabar on Saturday afternoon for a few days' visit with Mrs. Fitzgerald's brother, A. J. Vandewater, and family. Mrs. Fitzgerald expects to be accompanied on her return by her mother, Mrs. C. M. Vandewater, who has been at Malabar for some time.

For Sale—Window, frame 74x53 1/2 inches; also quantity of half-inch galvanized iron pipe. T. E. FITZGERALD. 201-4t

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Bacon, of Hyannis, Mass., who have been occupying their winter home on South Ridgewood avenue through the season, departed Saturday for their northern home, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Matthews and Mrs. Matthews' mother, Mrs. Hallett, who have been with them during the winter.

Experienced man desires position as care taker of place. Has knowledge of horticulture and gardening. P. O. box 96. 201-3t

J. B. Moore, who has been here as usual during the season at his winter home on South Ridgewood avenue, left Saturday afternoon on his annual spring trip west before returning to his summer home in Hartford, Conn. Mrs. Moore and their daughter, Mrs. A. H. Imbush, and little son will remain here until about the first of May.

*STORAGE FOR AUTOMOBILES, Vehicles and goods at McGregor's garage. Entrances from Orange and Cottage avenues. 200-6t

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Broadbent, parents of Mrs. F. J. Walter, of this city, who have been spending the season here as usual with Dr. and Mrs. Walter at their home on Cypress street, left Sunday on their return to Philadelphia. Mr. Broadbent is a great admirer of Daytona and always thoroughly enjoys his winter sojourn here. Even the unusual weather of this season failed to effect his loyalty to the city, although it prevented him from being in the open air as much as usual.

*Full line stationery at LeSesne's Kodak Place. 179-4t

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Millard, of Danbury, Conn., season guests at the Ridgewood hotel, departed Saturday on their return north. Mr. Millard has been spending the season or a part of it at the Ridgewood for the past 20 years, his first acquaintance with it dating back to its early management by Rose & Langworthy, who erected the original building. Mr. Millard says he has tried a number of other places in the state but has never found anything to equal Daytona which is the prettiest of them all.

THE DAILY NEWS FIGHT REPORTS DREW CROWD

A large and intensely interested crowd of men and boys—perhaps 400 to 500—collected in front of the Daily News office this afternoon to hear the reports megaphoned as they came in, by rounds, of the Johnson-Willard fight at Havana. A detailed report of each round was received from the ringside almost as soon as it ended, and the lusty cheering of the crowd lined up on Beach street testified to its keen interest in the battle. The sympathies of practically every man and boy in the crowd were with Willard, and at times, when the white man seemed to be winning, the cheering was deafening.

The Daily News has received numerous compliments for its enterprise in arranging to furnish the Daytona public with quick news of the event.

HAS RENTED RESTAURANT FOR THE SUMMER SEASON

C. R. Emerick, who came over from Orlando, Wednesday of last week, returned to that city Saturday, taking with him his family. Mr. Emerick has rented for the summer to H. D. Bumstead, but will take over the business again next winter and enlarge and improve it. Mr. Emerick has, in connection with G. S. Miller, purchased the Orlando hotel at Orlando, which they will conduct under the firm name of Miller & Emerick. Mrs. Emerick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Hamilton, who have been with Mr. and Mrs. Emerick in apartments over the Van Orsdal store on Volusia avenue, will remain here until the first of May and then go to Orlando for a time before returning to their home in Binghamton, N. Y.

WRECKED FLYING MACHINE SHIPPED TO JACKSONVILLE

The aeroplane used by Aviator G. A. Gray at Ormond during the season, and which was recently wrecked on the ocean beach at Ormond, was brought to Daytona Saturday evening and shipped Monday morning on the steamer Swan for Jacksonville. Mr. Gray accompanied the wreck of his flying machine to Jacksonville.

head. Johnson landed on Willard's body. Johnson's round.

FIFTEENTH ROUND—Johnson forced the fighting and drove Jess to the ropes with punches to the head. Jess landed the right on Jack's stomach and drove the right to Johnson's kidney. Johnson kidded Willard because the blows were light, and drove his left to Willard's face. The negro drove Willard to the ropes with rights and lefts to the head and body. Johnson drove the left to Willard's body. Johnson's round.

SIXTEENTH ROUND—Johnson landed his left on Willard's face and ducked a left swing. Johnson landed the right on Willard's face. Willard sent his right twice to the body, followed with a blow to the face. Johnson landed left to body and clinched. Willard countered with the right to body. Johnson sent a terrific right to the body and Willard returned with his right to Johnson's body. The round was even.

EIGHTEENTH ROUND—Willard forced the fighting and swung for Johnson's head. The negro ducked and landed three body blows. Johnson drove Willard to the ropes with four blows to the head. Willard landed right on Johnson's head. The negro grinned and drove a jab to Willard's jaw. Johnson's round.

GERMANS SUCCESSFULLY REPEL BELGIAN ATTACK

BERLIN, APRIL 5. (Official).—A VIOLENT ATTACK OF THE BELGIANS, MADE WITH THE IDEA OF OCCUPYING THE WEST SIDE OF THE YSER, WAS REPULSED. THE VILLAGE OF DREI GRATCHEN HAS BEEN OCCUPIED BY THE GERMANS.

CHARITY CARD PARTY AT THE ELKS' HOME

The ladies of Daytona are preparing to give a large card party at the Elks' clubhouse next Saturday afternoon, April 10th, for the benefit of St. Mary's hospital.

It has been learned that Mrs. Summers, who started St. Mary's hospital last September, saw the need of a place where the sick could be cared for regardless of whether they had means or not, and with her own money started and fitted up the building suitably and has since had the hospital full of patients, all without pay, except one person.

She has had help from the Palmetto club, the Elks and the various churches, but has paid her own rent and electric light, and she and her daughter have worked without remuneration.

The hospital is conducted non-sectarian, is open to all white persons, regardless of their means, and any physician is privileged to have patients and operate there. It is found that there is now an urgent need for equipment, including linens and dishes, for which the proceeds of this party will be used.

Some of the leading ladies of our city have already consented to act as patronesses and others will be asked, the intention being to interest all in this most worthy effort.

It is hoped the ladies of Daytona will keep next Saturday afternoon open and free from other enjoyments that this affair for a worthy charity may be a thorough success.

A list of the patronesses will be published later.

LARGE CONGREGATIONS IN BOTH MORNING AND EVENING

The services Sunday at the First M. E. church were well attended, both morning and evening. The Easter decorations were very beautiful and the Easter music rendered by the choir was very much enjoyed at all the services. A splendid Easter sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Jackson, of Atlanta, Ga., in the morning and in the evening Rev. J. M. Johnson, the evangelist, preached to a very appreciative congregation. Mr. Johnson, known as the boy preacher, will continue preaching at the First M. E. church this week, services commencing at 7:30 each evening. Everybody is cordially invited.

THE WEATHER.

For Florida: Fair tonight and Tuesday; slightly warmer tomorrow; light variable winds.

ANNOUNCED ENGAGEMENT AT AN EASTER PARTY

Miss Ella L. Willaume celebrated 16 of her most intimate friends at her home on North Beach street, Sunday afternoon with an engaging Easter party that included a pleasant surprise for those present.

One feature of entertainment was a flower contest, the prize for which was secured by Mrs. Ackland. The flower contest was successfully an Easter hunt both indoors and out and the prize in this case was awarded to Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson found the greatest number of prizes. Both prizes were appropriate to Easter entertainment.

The surprise of the afternoon was when the guests returned to the hall at the conclusion of the egg hunt. It was found arranged on the mantle in the living room a small table with each one and suspended by a ribbon around the neck of each bunny announcing the engagement of Miss Willaume to Arthur Nye Oke of this city, the wedding to take place the latter part of May.

The entertainment concluded with the enjoyment of a salad course.

SON AND HEIR BORN TO DR. AND MRS. C. C. BOHANNON
